Subject: SERIAL BURGLAR ARRESTED

Miami Police Burglary Detectives were investigating a string of burglaries and grand theft that had occurred in the Brickell area between September 9th and September 11th of 2024. The burglaries were all link to one subject, later identified as 24-year-old Eric Gerod Robinson.

After receiving several calls of burglaries and grand theft from residents of 79 SW 12th Street, Burglary Detectives looked at surveillance footage form the apartment building where they saw the subject walking through the halls of the building, testing numerous door handles to see if the apartments were unlocked. Robinson entered unlocked apartments and would take cash, purses, credit cards, watches, jewelry, and electronics.

Through the dedicated and unrelenting work of the burglary detectives and alert patrol officers, Robinson was located, arrested, and charged with 11 counts of Occupied Burglary and 4 counts of 3rd Degree Grand Theft.
